*PRESS RELEASE - POWER OUTAGES****

The PG&E public safety power shutdown may continue to cause outages this week and in the future. When power outages occur at the Courthouse, the Court will have limited services available to the public as follows:

- Only the 4th Street entrance to the courthouse will be open.
- The Court Jury Services division will be open and available.
- When individuals arrive for their scheduled court hearings, Court staff will be stationed inside the security 4th street security entrance to assist them.
- Documents that must be filed can be placed in the drop box outside the Clerk's office (421 "I" Street). Reminder, documents which require payment of a fee must have a check or money order included.
- The Court's phone services may be affected.
- If you do not have urgent business with the Court, we ask that you wait until later in the week to come to the courthouse.
- The second floor of the Courthouse (courtrooms), and third floor Court facilities are closed to the public.
- Please refer to the Court's web site (home page) for announcements for power outages that are affecting court services: <https://www.humboldt.courts.ca.gov>. If there is no power outage, court operations will continue as normal and no announcements will be made.
